

CONSULTING

HOSPITALS

COACHING

PeopleOnTheMove@NEWSDAY.COM

NEWSDAY.COM/BUSINESS

CONSULTING

Robert Hart has been named president of Pathfinder Consultants International LLC, a Manhattan-based investigative, security and consulting firm. The Garden City resident was senior agent in charge of the Long Island office of the Federal Bureau of Investigations.

HOSPITALS

Winthrop-University Hospital in Mineola has announced two promotions. John F. Collins has been promoted from chief operating officer and chief financial officer to executive vice president. The Huntington resident earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Queens College in 1976 and became a certified public accountant in 1982. He is active in several professional organizations, including the New York State Society of CPAs and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is a member of the finance committees for the Healthcare Association of New York State and the Greater New York Hospital Association and is a past chairman of the Nassau Suffolk Hospital Council Committee on Finance. Palmira M. Cataliotti has been promoted from the hospital's director of finance to vice president and chief financial officer. Cataliotti, of Roslyn Heights, has been with Winthrop since she joined the finance team in 1997 as accounting manager. She had been promoted to assistant controller, controller and, in 2005, director of finance. Catal-iotti has been responsible for the development of annual operating and capital budgets and the oversight of consolidated financial statements for the hospital, its subsidiaries and the Winthrop-South Nassau University Health System. She earned a bachelor of business administration in accounting from Hofstra University in 1990 and became a CPA in 1994. She is a member of various professional organizations, including the Healthcare Financial Management Association, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Alexandra P. Brovey of Glen Cove has been named senior director of gift planning for the North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System Foundation. An estate planning attorney, she has worked in gift planning at Stony Brook University, Pace University and Penn State University. She is a member of the National Committee on Planned Giving and the Planned Giving Group of Greater New York.

Dr. Paul C. Liu has been named director of the gynecology-oncology division of the department of obstetrics-gynecology at the Nassau University Medical Center in East Meadow. He was medical director and chief of gynecologic oncology at South Nassau Communities Hospital. He is a member of a national cooperative research group, the Gynecologic Oncology Group.

NOW ONLINE

READ MORE ON THE WEB

Lisa-Michelle Kucharz has been named marketing and public relations chair of the Long Island Coaching Alliance. She is founder and president of Ace the Race LLC, a career coaching business.

Send submissions and color photos to People on the Move, 235 Pinelawn Rd., Melville, NY 11747-4250, fax them to 631-843-2065 or e-mail peopleonthemove@newsday.com.

Robert Hart

John F. Collins

Palmira M. Cataliotti

Alexandra P. Brovey

Dr. Paul C. Liu